REMARKABLE POINTS ON THE MARKET

The market suddenly dropped strongly as VN-Index closed below 1,100 points. In most trading time today, main indexes moved within a small range with groups differentiating. Along with it, the liquidity dropped slightly, showing investors' cautiousness. However, after two pm, the dumping suddenly appeared so many codes were on the floor, focusing on recent leading groups like securities, real estate, steel, construction, and retail. The pressure at the end pushed the liquidity up again. On the other hand, foreign investors also placed pressure with another net selling.

TECHNICAL POINT OF VIEW

In technical term, VN-Index dropped again. The volume stayed above 10 and 20-session average, showing stronger selling pressure. Not just that, the index dropped strongly with a thick long candle cutting down to below MA20, showing that this short-term gain might end and correcting pressure is increasing. Moreover, RSI cut down to below Midline and -DI widened the gap above +DI, showing stronger dropping pressure and the index might face risk of dropping to support level around old bottom of 1,020-1,030 points. For HNX, HNX-Index saw similar situation. It dropped with a thick long candle denying previous gaining ones, and the volume increased to above 10 and 20-session average, showing stronger correcting pressure and the index might still see pressure toward close support around 222 points (MA20) or further on old bottom of 203 points. In general, the market is showing sign for confirming short-term gain and the trend is turning negative after the strong drop on November 23. Therefore, investors should consider using technical recoveries to bring the weight to a safe level to limit risks from general market.
