REMARKABLE POINTS ON THE MARKET

Stock market was in green again today as main indexes closed at day-highest level. In the morning and early afternoon, the market moved within a small range and the cash flow tended to midcap and penny codes, especially sea products, construction, pork, and plastic. At the end, despite foreign investors' another strong net selling, the demand from domestic investors showed sign of getting stronger, and the groups took turn to gain. Therefore, the liquidity was also much better in the afternoon so the liquidity of the day was above average. At the same time, the market also leaned completely on buyers.

TECHNICAL POINT OF VIEW

In technical term, VN-Index gained again. The volume was above 10-session average, showing that the cash flow is positive. Not just that, MA5, 20, and 50 tended to meet around MA200, showing that the index might continue on Sideway trend within a small range from 1,073-1,132 points. At the same time, the index surpassed MA200 pressure and stayed above MA5, and MA5 cut up to above MA20, showing stronger recovering trend and the index might soon move to challenge upper resistant on Sideway channel, or 1,132 points. For HNX, HNX-Index also gained. It gained further and closed above MA5, and MA5 increased to above MA20, showing that recovering trend is still there and the index might move to challenge close resistant around 235-240 points (MA100). In general, the market hasn't really escaped Sideway status within a range but the sign was better than the gain on December 6. Therefore, investors might continue on T+ surfing positions. In which, having priority on good-fundamental codes with positive prospect that can attract the cash flow.
